

BIO:

Daren is a native Nashvillian from Madison, TN. He did his undergraduate work at Rhodes College in Memphis, TN. From there he received an M.B.A in Finance from Lipscomb University and a M.Acc. from the University of TN. Upon graduating from the University of TN, Daren went to work with Deloitte as a tax associate and got married in the process to a beautiful lady from Franklin, TN. After 3 years in Memphis, he returned to Nashville and went to work for a local firm, Rayburn, Bates and Fitzgerald as a Senior Tax Associate.

Daren began his career at RHI in 2005 as an Account Executive. He has led several successful teams over the last six years. He has accumulated numerous client services awards including awards for the number one Global Sales Executive at RHI in 2008 and 2009, and was awarded number one North American Sales Executive in 2010. He currently leads a team of Executives ranked in the top 10 Globally for RHI. He currently has one daughter, age 5, and is expecting his second daughter sometime in September.